

Volunteer & Travel this Summer!

International Student Volunteers

Join thousands of like-minded students from over 800 universities and colleges in a volunteer program like no other. International Student Volunteers is volunteer organization that allows you to combine meaningful volunteer projects with action-packed adventure and educational travel in countries such as Australia, New Zealand, Costa Rica, The Dominican Republic, Eastern Europe, Thailand and Ecuador. This coming year, ISV will reach two million hours of volunteer efforts, assisting impoverished communities, endangered species, and fostering responsible travel and cultural awareness around the world. With ISV, you can travel with a purpose and make a difference to the lives of others on the ultimate adventure of a lifetime!

Volunteer Project (FIRST TWO WEEKS)

ISV has hundreds of projects in conservation or community development. These meaningful projects make a positive impact on the community and surrounding environments. ISV projects focus on sustainability while supporting the local communities. ISV's volunteer projects include:

- Elephant, dolphin, whale, monkey and sea turtle conservation
- Education programs for underprivileged children
- Environmental management and scientific research
- School, home and community infrastructure building projects
- Sustainable farming and eco-tourism development
- Endangered species monitoring, research and management

Testimony

"ISV has given me a true once-in-a-lifetime experience. Not only have I learned about a culture I'd never studied before, I learned about myself."
Nichole Henderson, University of Rhode Island

PROGRAM COSTS

The ISV Four-Week Program is a Two-Week Volunteer Project followed by a Two-Week Adventure Tour. The cost is $3,695 CAD. This price does not include airfare. See website for full pricing details.

Testimony

"ISV is an unexplainable experience. There are no words to explain things I have learned, the people I have met and the way they have changed my life!"
Lacey Salberg, Penn State University

Adventure Tour (SECOND TWO WEEKS)

You will travel with up to 50 other like-minded students to see the best your host country has to offer. The adventure tour is designed to let you experience the most beautiful areas of your host country, mingle with the locals, and learn about the exotic wildlife, cultural history and stunning landscapes! Highlights include:

- A two-day white water rafting adventure through pristine jungles
- A week-long yacht cruise through the Adriatic Islands
- Glacier trekking on volcanoes and rock climbing in breathtaking areas
- Horseback riding through an organic coffee farm or along beautiful beaches
- Sea kayaking through hidden caves and snorkelling amazing coral reefs
- Explore bustling cities, serene temples and historic monuments

PROGRAM FEATURES

- Raise Program costs through sponsorship donations from your community
- Academic credit available through ISV's partner universities or Independent study
- Excursions to Fiji, Machu Picchu/Peru and Galapagos Islands available
- Spanish Language and Cultural Immersion Program with home stay available for Costa Rica, Dominican Republic and Ecuador

APPLY NOW:

www.isvonline.org

Mention your professors name under the 'how did you hear' section of the application form

To have the adventure of a lifetime with ISV, please visit www.isvonline.org or call the ISV office at 714-779-7392