

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
LAURENTIAN UNIVERSITY
<http://www.laurentian.ca/history>

COURSES OFFERED IN 2011-2012 (TENTATIVE)

Time/Room	Study Stream	Course Title and Description	Instructor(s)
Monday-Wednesday 11:30-13:00 Fall 2011 September-December	European	HIST 1206 -- Western Civilization: Renaissance to the French Revolution An examination of Western society from the end of the Middle Ages to the French Revolution, with special emphasis on the developments that transformed the medieval world into its modern form. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	J.S. Liedl
Monday-Wednesday 11:30-13:00 Winter 2012 January-April	European	HIST 1207 -- Western Civilization: French Revolution to the Present An examination of significant themes and events in the history of Western society since the French Revolution. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	P.-A. Cavaliere
Tuesday-Thursday 11:30-13:00 Fall 2011 September-December	North American	HIST 1406 -- Canadian History: Pre-Confederation An examination of the historical developments in Canada from the first settlements to Confederation. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	S. Burke
Tuesday-Thursday 11:30-13:00 Winter 2012 January-April	North American	HIST 1407 -- Canadian History: Post-Confederation An examination of the political, economic and social developments in Canada from Confederation to the present. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	L.M. Ambrose
Tuesday-Thursday 10:00-11:30 Fall 2011 September-December	Compulsory	HIST 2026 -- Historical Methods This course examines the process of conducting historical research, introducing students to different methods, advanced library skills and the corresponding tools of research that historians employ. (A minimum grade of 60% is required for History majors.) (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	L.M. Ambrose
Tuesday-Thursday 8:30-10:00 Winter 2012 January-April	European	HIST 2056 -- History of Ancient Civilizations to the Greeks A study of ancient civilizations from ancient Egypt to Hellenistic Greece. Students may not retain credit for both HIST 2056 and CLAS 2056. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	J.S. Liedl
Monday 19:00-22:00 Fall 2011 September-December	North American	HIST 2337 -- History of the United States from the Civil War This course studies the main themes in the history of the United States from the Civil War to the present. Students may not retain credit for HIST 3505, 3507 and 2337. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	S. Azzi

Tuesday-Thursday 8:30-10:00 Fall 2011 September-December	European	HIST 2406 -- Early Modern British History This course examines the social, religious, economic and political changes in British life beginning in the later Middle Ages. Topics for consideration include the Reformation, colonization, war, royal authority and changes in the social structure. Students may not retain credit for both HIST 2405 et 2406. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	J.S. Liedl
Tuesday-Thursday 18:00-21:00 Winter 2012 January-April	European	HIST 2426 -- Modern British History, 1700-1850 This course will survey the political, social, economic, and cultural history of the British Isles from 1700 to 1850. Students who have taken HIST 2407 may not take HIST 2426 for credit. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	S. Burke
Wednesday 19:00-22:00 Fall 2011 September-December	European	HIST 2567 (formerly 2307) -- European History Since World War II This course examines the new Europe that emerged from World War II. Central to this course will be an analysis of the new power structures relationships that reshaped the political, economic and social landscapes. Student may not retain credit for HIST 2307 or 2305 and 2567. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	P.-A. Cavaliere
Tuesday-Thursday 10:00-11:30 Winter 2012 January-April	Compulsory	HIST 3006 -- Approaches to Canadian History A lecture-seminar course designed for history majors and others with an interest in Canadian historical writing and research. Emphasis will be on the variety of interpretations, structures, concepts and research techniques. Prerequisites: a first year History course or the approval of the department. (A minimum grade of 60% is required for History majors.) (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	M. Kuhlberg
Tuesday-Thursday 16:00-17:30 Fall 2011 September-December	North American	HIST 3106 (formerly 3386) -- History of the Canadian Family Surveys the changing form and function of the Canadian family from the colonial period to the present. Topics include: the impact on the family of agrarianism, industrialization, urbanization, war and immigration. Student may not retain credit for both HIST 3386 and 3106. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	L.M. Ambrose
Monday-Wednesday 13:00-14:30 Winter 2012 January-April	North American	HIST 3156 -- History of Education in Canada An introduction to the history of education in Canada from its origins in New France until the period following World War II. Topics for lectures and tutorials will focus on such central themes as the continuity of private initiatives, the formation of state education, the growth of the teaching profession, and the impact of class, race, and gender on educational experience. Particular attention will be given to the development of the public school system in Ontario. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	S. Burke
Monday-Thursday 13:00-14:30 Fall 2011 September-December	North American	HIST 3216 -- The First Nations in Canada in Historical Perspective An examination of the Indians of Canada and their interaction first with European and later with Canadian governments and society. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	M. Kuhlberg

Tuesday - 3:00-14:30 Thursday-14:30-16:00 Winter 2012 January-April	North American	HIST 3316 (formerly 3026) -- History of Canadian-American Relations A survey of the diplomatic, political, cultural and economic aspects of relations between the United States and British North America/Canada since 1783. Student may not retain credit for both HIST 3316 and 3026. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	S. Azzi
Monday 19:00-22:00 Winter 2012 January-April	North American	HIST 3396 (formerly 3536) -- Special Topics in Twentieth Century U.S. History This course will examine such topics as race relations, the political system, ideological developments, economic problems, Red scares, and the world leadership role of the United States in the twentieth century. Student may not retain credit for both HIST 3536 and 3396. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	S. Azzi
Wednesday 19:00-22:00 Winter 2012 January-April	European	HIST 3917 (formerly 2847) -- Fascism on Film This course explores the work of filmmakers who have used the mediums of feature and documentary film to interpret the rise and fall of the fascist experience in Europe in the years between the two World Wars. Lectures, tutorials, film screenings, and critical historical film reviews will measure the extent to which these filmmakers created cinematic historical documents designed to meet the needs of a devastated and defeated continental society embarking on a path of rebirth and renewal. The course will focus primarily on Fascist Italy and National Socialist Germany. Students may not retain credit for both HIST 2847 and 3917. (lec 2, tut 1), cr 3	P.-A. Cavaliere
Wednesday-Friday 13:00-14:30 Fall-Winter 2011 September-April	Other	HIST 4055 -- Research Project This research course, which may require an essay of up to fifty pages, requires the student to carry out research in primary sources. Prerequisite: *Students are only permitted to take HIST 4055 if they have a minimum average of 75% in the previous 42 credits of history courses and obtain permission of the department and an overall average of at least 60%. Students who do not meet the above entrance requirement will complete 6 additional credits at the 4000 level, chosen in consultation with the chair. (Students may only take HIST 4055 in 4th year) (tut 3), cr 6	Staff
Wednesday 14:30-17:30 Fall 2011 September-December	North American	HIST 4186 -- Canada in the Twentieth Century to World War II This course examines the political, military, social, and economic developments in Canada from the turn of the twentieth century to World War II. Prerequisite: a related 3000-level course or the approval of the department. Students may not retain credit for HIST 4185 and 4186. (sem 3) cr 3	M. Kuhlberg

Wednesday 14:30-17:30 Winter 2012 January-April	North American	HIST 4187 -- Modern Canada Since World War II This course explores in as much depth as time will allow the main themes and issues that have shaped post-World War II Canada. Topics include the post-war economic impact, immigration, the rise of the welfare state, the communications revolution, the American influence, the Quebec 'question', and Canada in the Cold War. Prerequisite: a related 3000-level course or the approval of the department. Students may not retain credit for HIST 4185 and 4187. (sem 3) cr 3	M. Kuhlberg
Wednesday 8:30-11:30 Fall-Winter 2011 September-April	North American	HIST 4215 -- History of Gender Relations in Modern Canada This course traces the history of gender relations in Canada during the twentieth century. The changing roles of women and men are examined in areas such as the family, work, politics and public policy. Attention is given to shifts in public attitudes and changes in private behavior throughout the past century. Prerequisite: a related 3000-level course or the approval of the department. (sem 3) cr 6	L.M. Ambrose
Monday 8:30-11:30 Fall-Winter 2011 September-April	North American	HIST 4335 -- United States in the Twentieth Century This course will study a series of topics in twentieth century American history including its emergence as a world power. (sem 3) cr 6	S. Azzi
Friday 8:30-11:30 Fall 2011 September-December	European	HIST 4516 -- Early Medieval Chronicles This seminar explores the mental world of late antiquity and the early Middle Ages as revealed in the texts of the time. Special attention will be paid to the intellectual, religious and social context of the writings and the writers' lives. Prerequisite: a 2000 History level course or the approval of the department. (sem 3) cr 3	J.S. Liedl
Friday 8:30-11:30 Winter 2012 January-April	European	HIST 4517 -- Later Medieval Chronicles The course explores the writing, use and understanding of historical records including biographies, autobiographies and chronicles in the Later Middle Ages. Prerequisite: at least 6 credits at the 2000 level in a related subject area. (sem 3) cr 3	J.S. Liedl
Monday 14:30-17:30 Fall-Winter 2011 September-April	European	HIST 4765 -- Totalitarianism in 20th Century Europe: Mussolini, Hitler, and Stalin The course explores the lives and works of the twentieth-century dictators Benito Mussolini, Adolf Hitler, and Joseph Stalin, and provides a detailed historical analysis of the political and ideological forces that contributed to the origins, development, and demise of their European totalitarian regimes. Topics include the role of biography in historiography, the institutional dynamics of centralized power, and the cult of personality (sem 3) cr 6	P.-A. Cavaliere