

BAR BUS

As chair of the Advisory Committee on Security Services, I was asked by the committee at the November 25, 1997 meeting to convey the following to you for your information and consideration:

Following further discussion by the committee members, it was agreed that the University should uphold its original decision regarding the bus from Ralph's Sports Bar. In addition, the following motion was put forward:

That the University prohibit the presence on University property of bar buses which are either initiated or sponsored (directly or indirectly) by any local drinking establishment.

Proposed by: Ron Larwood

Seconded by: C. Hayden

CARRIED.
