

INTERDISCIPLINARY PhD IN RURAL AND NORTHERN HEALTH

SUPPLEMENTARY APPLICATION FORM

Name: _____

Email: _____

Telephone Numbers: _____

Language of preference:    ☐ English    ☐ French

Program Stream:

The PhD program focuses on the two following main streams of study within the broader area of Rural and Northern Health. Please indicate which field corresponds most closely with your proposed area of research.

☐ Rural and Northern Health Policy      ☐ Rural and Northern Health Services

Proposed Thesis Title:

Time Commitment

This program is a traditional full-time graduate program. It requires a commitment of 35 hours per week to PhD training. The program is also expected to take approximately 4 years for the average student to complete. Your signature on this application confirms that you are able to fulfill these commitments.

Sources of funding:

Do you have funding to support your first year of studies?      ☐ Yes      ☐ No

If yes, please indicate the source of funding (e.g. Personal, Employment, Grant, Other ):

Do you have funding to support your subsequent years of studies?      ☐ Yes      ☐ No

If yes, please indicate the source of funding (e.g. Personal, Employment, Grant, Other ):

Proposed Supervisor:

Before being granted admission into the PhD in Rural and Northern Health students are strongly encouraged to identify an approved faculty member who will agree to serve as the student's supervisor.

Supervisors Name: _____

Supervisors Signature: _____

Date: _____

Student's Signature: _____

Date: _____