

Form

Information about the candidate, achievements and projects

To the Application for Admission, the candidate must attach a document containing the information below:

1. Candidate's name
2. PhD research project title
3. Motives
 - I. Why did you choose this program?
 - II. What are your goals after you have completed your studies?
(total of ½ page, single space)
4. Research achievements: study program, subject of master's thesis, publications, conferences, etc.
(total of ½ to a full page, single space)
5. Research project
Connections between research achievements and the Ph.D. project, issues tackled in the Ph.D. research and originality of Ph.D. research project in relation to existing literature.
(total of 1-2 pages, single space)
6. Name of professor affiliated to the Ph.D. in Human Studies who has accepted to supervise the thesis.

Note: The PhD in Human Studies program will send this form and the Thesis Supervision Letter of Intent to this faculty member to obtain a commitment from this person.