

P031 IODE, Elizabeth Fry Chapter, Sudbury Branch fonds

1935-1997

60 cm of textual documents and photographs

Administrative history: The Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire (IODE) Elizabeth Fry Chapter, Sudbury branch was formed on February 23, 1932. The Elizabeth Fry Chapter was one of four chapters of the IODE that eventually organized in the Sudbury district. The other Chapters were: Nipissing, Marjorie Price and Elizabeth Barrett Browning. The Elizabeth Fry Chapter consists of women that work together for the public good of their community. It is a non-denominational and non-partisan organization of volunteers who are involved in fundraising efforts to finance their activities. The work of this group is connected to: service, education and citizenship. The Elizabeth Fry Chapter is also a member of the IODE at the provincial and national levels.

Scope and content: The records of this fonds document the operation of the Elizabeth Fry Chapter of the IODE, Sudbury Branch, and they include: minutes, reports, correspondence, pamphlets, photographs and newspaper clippings. These records provide insight to the activities of the Chapter within the Sudbury area from 1932 to 1997. Through the years, the activities of this organization have entailed: sponsoring children at summer camps, genetic testing clinics, scholarships, donations to local hospitals and libraries, and service at Citizenship Court. In the earlier years, this Chapter organized inoculation clinics, the Fresh Air Camp, support for needy children, and aid for the war effort.

This fonds does not contain all of the minutes for the Chapter

Immediate source of acquisition: The records of this fonds were donated by the Elizabeth Fry Chapter of the IODE, Sudbury Branch, in one accrual in 1997.

Note: Associated material: is available at Archives of Ontario and National Archives

Other sources: An article entitled "Elizabeth Fry Chapter, IODE Sudbury, Ontario 50th Anniversary 1932-1982" by Jeanne E. Warwick, contains complementary material.
