

P118 Women's Legal Education and Action Fund (LEAF) Sudbury Fonds
1985-2003
11,6cm of textual records and 46 photographs

Administrative history: LEAF Sudbury is a local branch of a national non-profit organization called Women's Legal Education and Action Fund (LEAF). It works in accordance with the national organization's mission, which is "to promote and ensure respect of women's rights across Canada, as stated in the Charter of Rights and Freedoms". Their mandate also includes educating the public on issues regarding sex inequalities.

The idea of creating a LEAF branch in Sudbury started in September 1989, with the determination of Mary Lue Hinds, a member of the national organization. She contacted Mary Chow, Director of Development at the head office, who discovered that three women from Sudbury had supported LEAF: Trish Hennessy, Anne Cole, and Carmen Simmons. Following Ms. Chow's visit to Sudbury to meet all four women, the founders developed plans for LEAF Sudbury. A decade later, in 1999, LEAF Sudbury signed an agreement with LEAF National and became an official branch of the organization.

Since its inception, LEAF Sudbury has organised many important fundraising events. The event with the highest attendance, the Person's Day Breakfast, celebrates the day when Canadian women were deemed "persons" by the Privy Council of Great Britain, in October 1929. Among the guest speakers who have participated in this event: Marie Poulin, Dr. Lorna Marsden and Dr. Nancy Olivieri. Some of the funds raised at the Person's Day Breakfast are used for the LEAF Book Project to purchase books, magazine subscriptions and videos dealing with women's issues. At the outset, twenty-one French and English high school libraries in Sudbury benefited from this fundraising, until the money raised was later donated to the Greater Sudbury Public Library.

In 1995, LEAF Sudbury approached the local branches of the YWCA and the Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW), to ask for their collaboration in creating an event called Celebrate Women, which takes place every year around International Women's day. It gives the public of Sudbury an opportunity to meet a best-selling female author and discuss her book. The three organizations also acted in concert to have the Amphitheatre at Bell Park named after Grace Hartman, the first woman mayor of Sudbury, and one of the founders of the YWCA and CFUW in Sudbury.

Scope and content: The records of this fonds document the activities and the organization of LEAF Sudbury. It consists of the agreement with LEAF National, annual reports, documentation on the 'Mary Lue Hinds Award', and correspondence. The documents also provide information about fund-raising events, especially the Person's Day Breakfast: promotional documentation, programs, photographs and speeches of guest speakers. The records in this fonds attest to the educational mission of LEAF Sudbury and their interventions. There are records on the Book Project, reports, minutes and other related documentation on LEAF Sudbury's profile in the community. The fonds also consists of general documentation, such as publications, bulletins and legal reports, which provide information about the activities of LEAF across Canada and at its local branches. This fonds is arranged into four series: I: Constitutive and Administrative records; II: Fund Raising; III: Education projects; and IV: Documentation.

Notes: Immediate source of acquisition: The fonds was donated in 2003 by LEAF Sudbury (Mary Lue Hinds)

: Terms governing use and reproduction/publication: The copyright Act regulations apply

: Accruals: The first accrual was received in 2003. More accruals are expected.
